

1 THE CHAIRMAN: I understand it doesn't resolve
2 that question.

3 I am just trying to resolve the one.

4 Delegate Henderson.

5 DELEGATE HENDERSON: Mr. Chairman, Fellow Dele-
6 gates, the discussion on this particular amendment has taken
7 a wide range and it suggests that if it was the intention 8 that the legislature, that is, the General Assembly might 9 choose which powers it would assign to the Lieutenant Gover-
10 nor or to the Governor, we have really created a two-headed 11 monster here.

12 The difficulty that I see lies not so much in the 13 question as to the possibility of a veto, but in the first
14 sentence here, which says that there shall be a Lieutenant
15 Governor to perform such duties as may be prescribed by law
16 and such other duties as may be delegated to him by the 17 Governor.

18 It seems to me that puts the cart before the 19 horse.

20 What we are creating this office for is to 21 provide the Governor with an assistant who may help him in
